Reading Public Schools

Instilling a joy of learning and inspiring the innovative leaders of tomorrow

Dear Reading Memorial High School Class of 2014,

Congratulations on completing your studies at Reading Memorial High School! You have a lot to be proud of during the thirteen years that you have been students in the Reading Public Schools. I have had the opportunity to attend many of your events during your four years here at Reading Memorial High School. You have excelled in academics, drama, music, extra-curricular activities, community service, and athletics. You have been role models for your peers and have surpassed the bar that has been set by your teachers, advisors, coaches, and parents. It has been an honor and a privilege to be the Superintendent of Schools for such an outstanding group of young men and young women.

The late great Walt Disney once said, "All of our dreams can come true, if we have the courage to pursue them." You will have some amazing opportunities along the next leg of your journey, each with its own unique set of challenges, experiences, and opportunities. No matter which path you choose, I encourage each of you to follow your dreams and bring them to life through imagination and hard work...no matter how impossible they may seem.

On behalf of the Reading School Committee, the administration and staff of the Reading Public Schools, I congratulate you on completing your education here in Reading and wish you a healthy, happy and successful future.

Sincerely,

John F. Doherty, Ed.D.

Dear Class of 2014,

Congratulations for a very successful senior year that impressively completes your high school education. Over these past four years, you have accumulated many awards and experienced many powerful learning experiences. From the National Merit Commended Students, to the Boston Globe and Herald All-Scholastics, state athletic championships, the successful foundation of new academic programs, and the re-birth of Mr. RMHS, as a class, you have accomplished much to be proud of. You leave a significant impression.

This time in your life has been truly successful, and much of your success can be attributed to the growth that you have experienced throughout your years of schooling. This is not the end for you, but the beginning and powerful opportunities for growth await you all. Whatever your plans are beyond high school, carry with you the lessons learned about perseverance, hard work, creativity, insight, collaboration, empathy and fair play. These lessons learned on the playgrounds, in classrooms, on the stage, and the courts and fields are what have allowed you to grow into the mature learners and confident, caring adults that you are today. This is an exciting time to be a learner and a citizen of the world. My advice to you is to embrace opportunities that allow you to grow along with the world in new and exciting ways.

Without question, Class of 2014, you have left your mark on RMHS. In the coming years I look forward to hearing how you grow and impact our world. I wish you the best of luck with all of your future endeavors.

Best regards,

Kevin J. Higginbottom

Dear Class of 2014,

I would like to take this opportunity to commend you on an outstanding senior year and on the successful completion of your high school career. I hope that you have fond memories of the time that you spent here at RMHS.

During my first year as an Assistant Principal at Reading Memorial High School, I have had the opportunity to witness the amazing talent and the tremendous potential you have exhibited in the classroom, on the playing fields, on stage and in your good deeds and personalities. I have been inspired by your youthful exuberance, and your care and kindness towards each other.

You have brought honor and recognition to the community of Reading, and left a legacy of excellence. Be proud of all of your accomplishments here, but do not settle for them, for there is much more for you to do. Learn from your accomplishments and share your wisdom. If you have learned anything here, I hope it is that the world needs you and that your actions can have a powerful influence.

I wish you happiness and peace in all of your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Ms. Olsen

Dear Class of 2014,

One of my favorite quotations is from Abraham Lincoln who stated, "I am a success today because I had a friend who believed in me, and I didn't have the heart to let him down."

As you leave Reading Memorial High School and embark on new opportunities, endeavors, and challenges, some of you will evidence nervousness, anticipation, anxiety, trepidation, confidence, or excitement. These are all natural emotions that can be expected.

Having considered each of you to be a friend, a colleague, and a member of the R.M.H.S. family, I have always believed in you, and am certain you will flourish in any pursuit that you will undertake.

I would like to stress that I have thoroughly enjoyed working closely with the Class of 2014. You have excelled academically, extracurricularly, and athletically. You have comported yourself with appropriateness, maturity, and distinction. You have been a source of pride to yourselves, your family, your school, and your community.

In closing, I would like to quote Dr. Seuss. "You're off to Great Places. Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting, so get on your way."

Class of 2014, congratulations on a job well done!

Dear Members of the Class of 2014:

Congratulations on a wonderful high school career! It is with pride that I have been involved with your class for the past four years. During this time I have witnessed many great accomplishments by your class and individual members of the Class of 2014. In the classroom, on stage, in the hallways, gymnasium and on the athletic fields your enthusiasm for learning was always present. What comes to mind when I think about the class of 2014 is how you treated each other and how well you always got along. Whether it be kindness, compassion or just looking out for one another. It is these qualities that I will remember most about your class.

The class leadership and class members will always be remembered at Reading Memorial High School. Your hard work, dedication and enthusiasm made this school a special place for all. You have been a positive influence on the underclassmen and the Reading Community. This is something that you should be proud of.

Thank you for being a valuable part of the Reading Memorial High School Community and the Class of 2014. I wish you the best of luck in the future in all that you do. Most importantly, be healthy, be happy and be safe.

Dedication

On behalf of the Class of 2014, this year's yearbook is dedicated to Mr. Higginbottom. Mr. Higginbottom has stood at the helm of RMHS for the past two years leading our students and faculty towards success.

Although Mr. Higginbottom was not there for all four of our years at RMHS, he was there for our two most important years. As an “outsider” coming into the world of RMHS, Mr. Higginbottom never wasted a moment immersing himself in the culture and community at RMHS. He did not hesitate to volunteer as one of the teachers competing in the dance off at last year’s Pep Rally. And this year, Mr. Higginbottom even assisted in Mr. RMHS talent acts. It is refreshing to have a principal so willing to become a part of the student’s lives.

Mr. Higginbottom greets and smiles at students and faculty throughout each school day. He supports us as students, athletes, musicians, actors and philanthropists by attending sports games, musical and theatrical performances, community service events and other things that RMHS students host.

Mr. Higginbottom has shown a level of dedication and care throughout his time as principal at RMHS that will be missed in the future. As a community, it will be sad to see such an important member leave. But, as the rest of the Class of 2014 go their separate ways, so will Mr. Higginbottom. We wish you the best in all the adventures that lie ahead for you. And we appreciate all you have done for us these past two years.

Written by Kasey Cook

Dear Class of 2014,

As freshman in High School, we were told time and time again that High School would fly by. Back then being a senior seemed light years away. But after countless sporting events, drama shows, dances, proms, club meetings and fundraisers, we finally understand what they were all talking about.

Although we don't want to admit how many Friday nights we spent hunched over our laptops, we both really enjoyed putting together a book that represents our past four years at RMHS. Whether you're signing a friend's, letting it collect dust at your parent's house, or showing it to your grandchildren, we hope you enjoy it (and don't regret anything too much.)

We'd like to thank Mrs. Festa, Tom Keeley, Mrs. Donahue and our awesome satff for helping us put this book together.

Kasey Cook

What an adventure! From the outfield to the Grasslands, the baseball bus to loading band trucks, being In The Heights to being in the heart of Atlanta, the yellow brick road to Main Street USA, being stuck in the props closet to being locked in for NHD, twice. And yes, I have thin mints.

Thank you to Mom, Dad and Mac, for always supporting me. And to my friends who have been by my side, even in uniform.

Good luck, Class of 2014!

Congratulations Class of 2014! The last four years have been nothing but fun. Good luck to everyone!

Bernard Cotter

High school was great. I wish it lasted longer. Mom, Dad, and Kaitlin, thanks for your help and support. Love you guys.

To all my friends, it was fun. I wouldn't have had as much fun without JD, JK, EJ, DB, KW, CT, JB, WD, DS, CP, AB, LK, MM, JM, ZF, JD, DM, JR, DR, AZ, CA, JM, and everyone else. We made it great.

Nothing better than playing in the jungle, I'll remember that forever. Not to mention winning the Super Bowl. Huge thanks to my coaches and teachers who helped me become the person that I am today.

My Boys- Sonic with Face, swimming at Max's, watching football at Drews, all the way to "wheres Joe?" And Med's Irish step dance, to my house. These times were the best.

Jackie- We've been through everything babe. I love you.

Mom and Dad- Thanks for everything, Love you.

Fio, Blanch, Ms.Allard- Thank you for believing in me.

Football - SB Champs! It wasn't always easy, but we had fun.

Thank you everyone. From the extraordinary amount of support my family gives me to the ordinary "hey" of a nearby classmate, I will always cherish these years at RMHS. High school wasn't easy, and we didn't make it easy. We challenged ourselves. We failed, persevered, and failed again. But no matter what, we always succeeded in the end. So again, thank you all.

Congratulations Class of 2014. We did it.

"I spent my life folded between the pages of books.

In the absence of human relationships I formed bonds with paper characters. I lived love and loss through stories threaded in history; I experienced adolescence by association. My world is an everwoven web of words, stringing limb to limb, bone to sinew, thoughts and feelings all together. "One day you'll wake up and realize that you are too big for your own skin. Moh. Don't be afraid. Your body is a house where the shutters blow in and out against the window pane. You are a hurricane-prone area. The glass will break through often. But it's okay. I promise." – Shinji

MoonMama, Dad, Mel, & Leesa – GAH!
WEE! I LOVE YOU!

To all of my friends – Thank you for an incredible 12 years

Now, off to bigger and brighter things.

David Sinagoga

The next time you read this, hopefully you'll understand how important it is to hold on to people that you've known for years. We have been a portion of your foundation in some way; thank us by keeping in touch. An old friend is still a friend.

Sincerely, The people who still care about you, such as me

"Chase your dreams and the rest will fall into place."

I never would have thought High School would go by that fast. I'll never forget it. I just want to say thank you to all my friends for all the laughs and good memories we have created. I would also like to thank my mom and dad for being there every step of the way, also my sister Krista and my younger brother Danny. You guys are awesome!

Good luck class of 2014, with everything you do in life.

Julia Stackhouse

When the music hits, it fits and just feels right.

Lets all go to the old folks home!

Love to my family, LS, HD, RL, JD, CL, NP, JF, and all the Julias<3

Thank you Mom and Dad for always supporting me, and thank you to Ashley, Kailey, Mark and Brooke for always being there for me. Thank you to my friends. Thank you to my coaches over the past four years; Sully, Jill, and Jerry. Good luck to all my softball girls and thanks for the great memories.

Class of 2014 I wish you good luck in the next chapter of our lives.

Nathan Terry

"In order to succeed, your desire for success should be greater than your fear of failure."

- Bill Cosby

I had a great time at RMHS. Soccer, track and baseball were awesome. Biggest thrill was track state championship winter 2012. Loved qualifying for soccer tournaments 2012 and 2013. Thanks to all my teachers, especially Mr. Dent. Will miss WWII class. Thanks to Mom, Dad and Carolyn for always supporting me.

Linus Teutsch

William Thibault

High school, it's the best of times and it's the worst of times. Well actually a friend of mine taught me something and him more than anybody I know really loved high school and it is to live young, wild, and free.

Michael Thomson

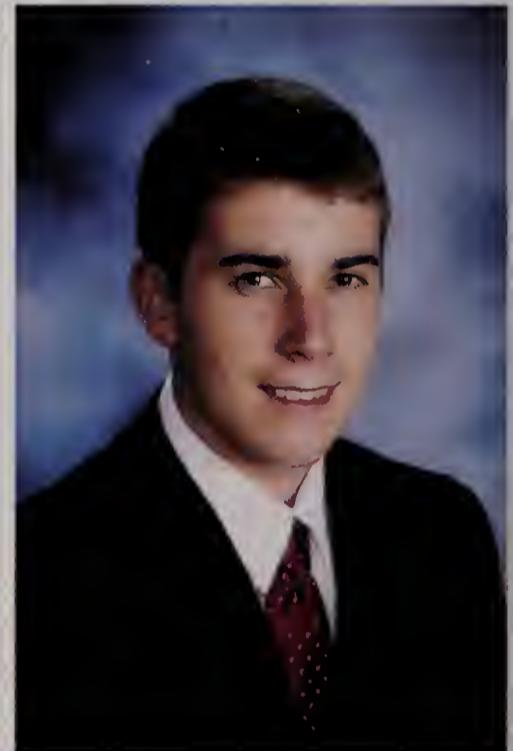

I'd like to thank my family for everything they've done for me. I wouldn't be here without you, I love you guys.

I'd also like to thank my boys for an unreal four years. We made some memories I'll never forget.

Finally, I'd like to thank the administration for handing me a five gamer.....

Thank you Mom and Dad for everything. Emily- I can't wait to see what the future holds for you. Thank you for always being there! To my friends- I would not have wanted to spend the past 12 years with anyone else.

Congratulations to the Class of 2014, good luck in your future endeavors!

James Tran

James Tran, gum supplier of the class of 2014. The years have gone by and soon every senior will be gone from RMHS towards the future. We, the class of 2014, will most likely not see each other again after the year. I leave this bio in order to remember a solid senior year.

That is all.
